Summary Report

Throughout the academic year, MGU's SPH College of Pharmacy, Malegaon, organized a series of 15 impactful activities and programs under various awareness and outreach schemes aimed at fostering holistic development, community welfare, and social responsibility among students and the local community. These initiatives began with a Health Checkup Camp and an Ayushman Bharat Health Card Awareness and Registration Camp to promote health awareness and facilitate access to essential healthcare services. Complementing these efforts was a Yoga and Meditation Programme that encouraged physical and mental well-being. Celebratory events, such as the Savitribai Phule Jayanti Celebration and Shivrajyabhishek Sohala Day, paid homage to historical figures, fostering cultural appreciation and historical awareness among participants. Creative and competitive platforms were provided through a Dance Competition, a Drawing Competition, and the associated prize distribution ceremonies, which highlighted the importance of artistic expression and recognition of talent. In the domain of awareness and education, the institution conducted a Cancer Awareness Programme with a guest lecture on cancer, emphasizing early detection and prevention strategies, and a Cyber Security Awareness Programme featuring expert insights into safeguarding against digital threats. The institution also actively promoted civic engagement through a Voter Awareness Programme, encouraging informed participation in democratic processes. Environmental responsibility was underscored through initiatives such as a Tree Plantation Awareness Programme and an Environment Conservation Rally, inspiring students and the community to contribute to sustainable practices. Women's health and hygiene were prioritized with a Sanitary Pad Distribution Programme, addressing critical issues and promoting awareness about menstrual health. The institution also participated in the nationwide cleanliness campaign through the Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan Awareness Programme, led by NSS Program Officer P.T. Newadkar, which reinforced the importance of hygiene and community cleanliness. This was further complemented by recognizing student efforts with the Best Voluntary Service Scheme Volunteer Award Distribution, motivating active participation in community service. These diverse activities reflect the college's commitment to academic, social, and cultural development.
